

Woolstock is a celebration of the fibre arts community. From production, to creation, and everything in between!

Join us for this Fibre Arts celebration from August 17th to August 24th at venues throughout the town of Tatamagouche in Nova Scotia.

Activities include workshops throughout the week ending with a fibre market & village on August 24th with over 40 vendors, music, demonstrations, children's crafts and fun for all ages and experience levels.

Visit <https://www.sisterhoodfibres.com> for events listings

Fleece Show & Sale Information

Judging: August 23rd, 2019

Show & Sale: August 24th, 2019

Deadline for Entry forms: July 31st, 2019

Please join us for the first Woolstock Fleece Show & Sale! Our event invites sheep producers to enter and/or offer fleeces for sale, and it is NOT necessary to enter the show in order to offer your fleeces for sale. Sheep fleeces entered in the competition will be judged on suitability for handspinning and assessed for soundness, cleanliness including yield, as well as handle, staple length, crimp style and uniformity characteristic to breed. In addition, owners of all other fibre-producing animals (llamas, alpacas, goats and rabbits) may also offer fleeces for sale. Sale Only fleeces will be sold on a first come, first serve basis with individual fleece producers having set the price for their fleeces. Select fleece show winners will be available for sale by silent auction.

When & Where:

- Friday Aug. 23rd, 9:00am - Show fleeces judged
- Saturday Aug. 24th, 10:00am to 3:00pm - Fleeces for sale
- Saturday Aug. 24th, 10:00am to 3:00pm - Silent Auction for award winning fleeces
- Saturday Aug. 24th, 3:30pm - Pickup for winners of the silent auction fleeces

Location: North Shore Rec Centre 30 Blair Ave, Tatamagouche NS

Fleece Competition Entry Form <https://www.sisterhoodfibres.com/woolstock>

Fleece Competition Information <https://www.sisterhoodfibres.com/woolstock>

For more information, please contact: Jackie Wile wileswoolies@eastlink.ca
902-685-2104